Unjustly Accused, Swiftly Acquitted: Umair's Journey to Justice in Just One Day

Umair, a 17-year-old from Baldia Town, Karachi, worked as a laborer, earning Rs. 10,000 a month.

Falsely accused of robbery with an unlicensed weapon, he found himself in police custody after an FIR was lodged against him.

With the help of Mr. Habibullah Jamali, his case was brought to court on 3rd February, 2024.

During the proceedings, it emerged that a dispute over a sum of Rs. 10,000 led to the false accusations.

The court quickly recognized Umair's innocence, releasing him from custody the same day. The court also issued a show cause notice to the concerned police officers for lodging a false FIR.

Justice was served swiftly, proving Umair's innocence in just one day
